

ARTS 4313 : Advanced Drawing II

Advanced Drawing is a two semester course which investigates contemporary drawing practices and theory such as how drawing relates to other media such as installation, performance, photography and new technologies. Class time will be devoted to presentations, critiques, and engage in research of historical and contemporary artists. Students are expected to work outside of designated class time to complete their work. Second semester students continue their investigations working on independent projects in consultation with the instructor.
