

CG 5301 : Introduction to Theological Studies

Explores models, insights, and skills necessary to facilitate the crucial conversation between the Catholic faith and social, cultural, and ecclesial contexts of pastoral ministry, as well as exploration of key issues and pressing questions by way of introduction to sources; consideration of the qualities of the Christian minister, formation of mature Christian who are responsive, responsible and creative participants in their faith tradition and in society.

Credits 3

Course ID

008429