

CG 7336 : Theology of Grace

This course explains the history and theology of the doctrine of grace, and associated controversies, focusing on certain period of Church history. The Patristic period; Augustine, Scholastic and Thomistic theologies; the development of the doctrine during the Council of Trent in response to controversies of the Reformation.

Credits 3

Course ID

008832