

YLSD 6307 : Readings in Modern Theology

Readings in Modern Theology explores post-18th century Catholic theology considering modern and post-modern philosophical and theological debates. Analysis of the writings of specific theologians who have been influential in Vatican Councils I and II will be explored along with post-conciliar theological discussions, those generated by the Holy See and other Catholic theologians.

Credits 3

Course ID

009213

Semester Offered

Offered as needed