

COMM 6336 : Blockbuster Dreams: The Epic Cinema of the 1980s

This course explores the epic cinema of the 1980s, a decade marked by blockbuster hits and larger-than-life heroes. Students will study the themes, styles, and cultural context of epic narratives in film, including the works of filmmakers such as James Cameron, Steven Spielberg, and Ridley Scott. Through screenings and analysis, students will gain a deeper understanding of the significance of 1980s cinema in the evolution of the blockbuster genre.

Credits 0

Course ID

009509

Semester Offered

Offered as needed