

COMM 6334 : Fantasy Film – The Epic Cinematic Worlds of Sword, Sorcery, and the Hero's Journey

This course is an epic journey into the heroic endeavor of the human spirit – the unrelenting quest to confront evil, champion righteousness, and embrace the flaws, weaknesses, and strengths that allow us to transcend our self-imposed limitations. In addition to screening and analyzing a variety of canonical fantasy films, we will contextualize the works within the broader literary tradition of the Arthurian legends, Greek mythology, and historiographic accounts of “real” heroes.

Credits 3

Course ID

009508

Semester Offered

Offered as needed