

CRIM 5326 : White Collar Crime

The course examines white collar crime, why is it different than traditional street crime, and does it have the same effect on society as blue collar crime. Who are the victims and what are the costs of white collar crime? Applications of Catholic social justice will be discussed as a means of problem solving.

Credits 3

Course ID

009249

Semester Offered

Fall semester