

CU 2122 : Ecumenism & Interfaith Dialogue

This course will introduce students to the history, theology, spirituality, praxis and challenges of ecumenism and interfaith dialogue. The course will be grounded in the Vatican II documents: Unitatis Redintegratio and Nostra Aetate and will consider recent developments, documents and official dialogues with Orthodox, Anglican, Protestant and Evangelical Christians and the relationships with Judaism, Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism.

Credits 1

Course ID

009046

Semester Offered

Offered as needed