

DEIS 4691 : Internship in Decision Information Science

Positions with participating companies provide students with experience in the computer field under the supervision of the companies and faculty. To be supervised individually by a faculty member with the approval of the chair. Requirements include completion of progress reports, on-site evaluations and program documentation. Prerequisite: Instructor Consent.

Credits 6

Course ID

001903