

ECON 3331 : International Economics

The theory of international trade and finance with emphasis on gains from international trade, determination of the level and composition of trade, barriers to trade, balance of payments and the international monetary system. Prerequisites: ECON 1331, 1332.

Credits 3

Course ID

001858

Requisites

ECON 3331 Prerequisites: ECON 1331, 1332