

FC 6359 : Catholic Teachings on Education

The course investigates the rich tradition of the Church teaching on education, while, at the same time, challenging students to bring this tradition to bear on related contemporary issues. It explores the many different ways that Catholic education—with its emphasis on beauty, enculturation, formation, and liturgy—stands apart from the dominant culture's assumptions that education is ultimately ordered towards employment and financial success.

Credits 3

Course ID

008085