

HISTC 1301 : History of Western Culture and Ideas

A historical perspective on European culture, society, and politics. This course aims to foster both historical consciousness and the stability and circumspection that results from an awareness of the richness and diversity of the past.

Credits 3

Course ID

009232