

HSM 5300 : Professional Communication in Human Services Management

This course reviews the principles of graduate academic writing, oral communication. It prepares students to apply communication and research skills to both future coursework in their respective programs and their professional careers.

Credits 3

Course ID

008684