

MPPA 5376 : Public Budgeting & Finance

This course examines the techniques and politics of raising and spending public funds. It discusses topics such as deficits politics, legislative and executive powers and the budgetary role of the courts. It assesses the impacts of taxing and spending policies and explores issues relevant to national, state, and local governments.

Credits 3

Course ID

009135

Requisites

MPPA Course Prerequisite: Permission Required for students outside the MPPA program.