

PHIL 3338 : God in Philosophy

A study of the teachings of some of the major philosophers, including St. Thomas Aquinas, concerning the existence and attributes of God and the consequences of theism and atheism in philosophy. Prerequisite: Completion of either the systematic or the historical sequence.

Credits 3

Course ID

001488

Requisites

PHIL 3338 Prerequisite: PHIL 3313 or 3317