

PHIL 4329 : Pascal

This course will study the thought of the 17th century genius Blaise Pascal. In the course the Pensees will be examined closely; the student shall understand how Pascal addresses the question of the relationship of the human being to God in light of fundamental features of human existence. Prerequisite: two/three course philosophy sequence.

Credits 3

Course ID

007400

Requisites

PHIL 4329 Prerequisite: PHIL 2314 or 2316/3316