

POSC 3356 : American Constitutional Law II

Examines the American constitutional law of criminal justice and criminal procedure as it relates to the administration of criminal substantive law, and the procedural law of arrest, stop and frisk, search, confessions, identification, preliminary hearings, bail, indictment, plea bargaining, venue, discovery, trial, sentencing, appeal, and habeas corpus. Prerequisites: POSC 2331, 2332.

Credits 3

Course ID

005033

Requisites

POSC 3356 Prerequisites: POSC 2331, 2332

Semester Offered

Spring semester