

POSC 3376 : Public Budgeting and Finance

Examines the techniques and politics of raising and spending public funds. Discusses topics such as deficits politics, legislative and executive powers, and the budgetary role of the courts. Assesses the impacts of taxing and spending policies. Explores issues relevant to national, state, and local governments. Prerequisites: POSC 2331, 2332.

Credits 3

Course ID

001564

Requisites

POSC 3376 Prerequisites: POSC 2331, 2332

Semester Offered

Fall semester, even years