

THEO 3349 : Christ and the Moral Life

A study of fundamental Catholic teachings on the moral life, founded upon the truth that the power to live the moral life flows from Christ and the divinizing power of his grace, particularly in the sacraments. Course content includes the beatitudes, freedom, the morality of human acts and passions, moral conscience, the theological virtues, sin, social justice, and the Ten Commandments.

Credits 3

Course ID

001767

Requisites

Pre/Corequisite: THEOC 1301.

Semester Offered

Fall, spring, summer semesters