

YHS 9316 : Teachings of the Papacy

Teachings of the Modern Papacy focuses on the encounter of the recent papacies to issues within the Church and of the Church's responses to the modern world and its challenges. The major theological, intellectual, diplomatic, and moral developments are unfolded in the context of the papacies in modernity as well as accompanying political movements and regimes.

Credits 3

Course ID

007441