

YLSM 7303 : Social Doctrine & Advanced Bioethics

An advanced course that establishes the fundamental teaching in the Church's social doctrine and its development from the early church to the modern period. Key modern encyclicals in social justice are studied with special attention given to documents of the papacy, the Holy See, the USCCB and Catholic bioethical theologians, covering topics and scenarios relevant to the priestly vocation.

Credits 3

Course ID

009210

Semester Offered

Fall semester