

YPF 7101 : Social Ministry I

These courses reflect the supervised on-site ministry in parish social agencies or other institutions that serve people alienated from society, e.g., correctional institutions, half-way houses, shelters for the homeless, etc. Social ministry is studied in relation to presbyteral and parochial ministry. These courses also include facilitation by social ministry directors and theological reflection with peers. (Ordination Track MDIV only).

Credits 1

Course ID

002290