

ARTHS 4345 : Iconography of Christian Art (I and II)

An introduction to the symbolic language and modes of expression in Christianity from the Early Christian period to the present. It explores approaches to understand the meaning within images as recorded in scriptural and literary texts as well as local oral tradition.

Credits 3

Course ID

006384

Semester Offered

Fall semester