

ARTS 1301 : Drawing Fundamentals I

Students learn to transpose 3-D objects into 2-D equivalents. While studying the relationships of planes and evaluating proportions, students develop eye, hand and perceptual skills in order to translate these observations to paper. The goals involve the exploration of different representational techniques in black-and-white media and the development of visual awareness and discrimination.

Credits 3

Course ID

001715