

ARTS 2395 : Beginning Book Arts

I

Participants execute one of a kind examples of both adhesive and non-adhesive bindings. Book construction techniques include concertina, pamphlet, album, and swen signature formats with hard and soft covers. Decorative techniques include making paste papers and water-based Japanese marbling. During the second semester (2396) students refine their comprehension of the various adhesive and non-adhesive structures. Simple text and imaging possibilities are introduced. Emphasis is on design and content. Some materials are provided. Limited enrollment.
